

Blackboard: Making Your Course Available

First things first! Log into <https://learn.uark.edu/>

On the first page you encounter, look under ‘My Courses’ at ‘Spring 2020 [1203]’ course listings

All of your courses in UAConnect will already have a Blackboard course.

However, courses might be listed as (not currently available).

See example to the right.

▼ Spring 2020 [1203]

Courses where you are: Instructor

COMBINED STAT 2303 - PRINCIPLES OF STATISTICS (MASTER-1203-THEUA-STAT-2303-SEC901)

MATH 399VH - HONORS MATHEMATICS COURSE (1203-THEUA-MATH-399VH-SEC001-12273) (not currently available)

STAT 2303 - PRINCIPLES OF STATISTICS (1203-THEUA-STAT-2303-SEC001-1602) (not currently available)

We will need to fix that! The easiest way to do so is to get to the ‘Qwickly’ area.

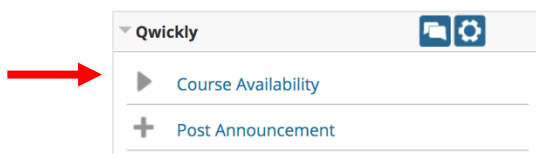

1. You are here (see the purple line below ‘U of A’)

2. Click on ‘Courses’
You will want to be here!
(see the purple line below ‘Courses’)

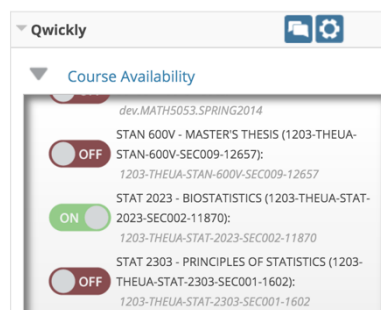

3. Scroll down the page to the ‘Qwickly’ box and click ‘Course Availability’

4. Make the ‘Off’ course available by moving that switch to ‘On’!

Course is NOT available.

Course is available.

5. Confirm! Reload the page and look at your ‘Spring 2020 [1203]’ course listings.
Confirm that your course no longer says (not currently available). Done!
