Blackboard: Audio Lecture with PDF Preliminaries
Accessing Adobe Pro

Note #1: If you are more familiar with PowerPoint, check out the 'Audio Lecture with PowerPoint' handout.

Note #2: Lecturing over PDF can also be done using Kaltura (see TIPS site below).

TIPS mentions this feature here:
https://tips.uark.edu/contingency-planning-creating-content-and-assignments-when-classes-are-cancelled/

Requirements for embedding audio in a PDF:

1. Embedding audio in a PDF will require you to record and save an audio file outside of Adobe Pro. Many phones, computers, etc. have various means for recording audio.
2. You must have access to something such as Adobe Pro (not just Adobe Reader) to embed audio in a PDF. You can access Adobe Pro in at least two different ways, which will both be mentioned below:

    i. You can utilize UA Remote Lab Virtual Desktop via apps.uark.edu

        For more information, check out the website below*:
        https://its.uark.edu/printing-labs/computer-labs/remote-labs-virtual-desktops.php

        If you do not already have access to Remote Lab, you must first 'Request Access'

        Notice that you will need to install the VMware Horizon Client also

        Once you have access it is really easy!

Blackboard: Audio Lecture with PDF Preliminaries
Accessing Adobe Pro

Go to via apps.uark.edu

Log in with your UArk credentials

Select an 'app' for use or simply select
'VDI Lab Desktops'

A pop-up will appear and, then,
click 'Open VMware Horizon Client'

You are now virtual!

And that is Adobe Pro!

Simply use your UArk email to sign in when prompted

More details about the virtual desktop is available from IT (see the previous page*)

ii.   You can install Adobe Pro DC on your own computer for free!

First, check out the website below:
https://its.uark.edu/software-equipment/get-software/adobe-creative-cloud.php

Click on 'Log into Creative Cloud'

Type your UArk email address to 'Sign in with an Enterprise ID'

If you are already logged into your UArk account on your browser this should be the only information required

However, if prompted, enter your UArk
password to sign it

Click on 'Open' under 'Creative Cloud'

Questions? Email me! sewrob@uark.edu OR Check out https://tips.uark.edu/ for all things!
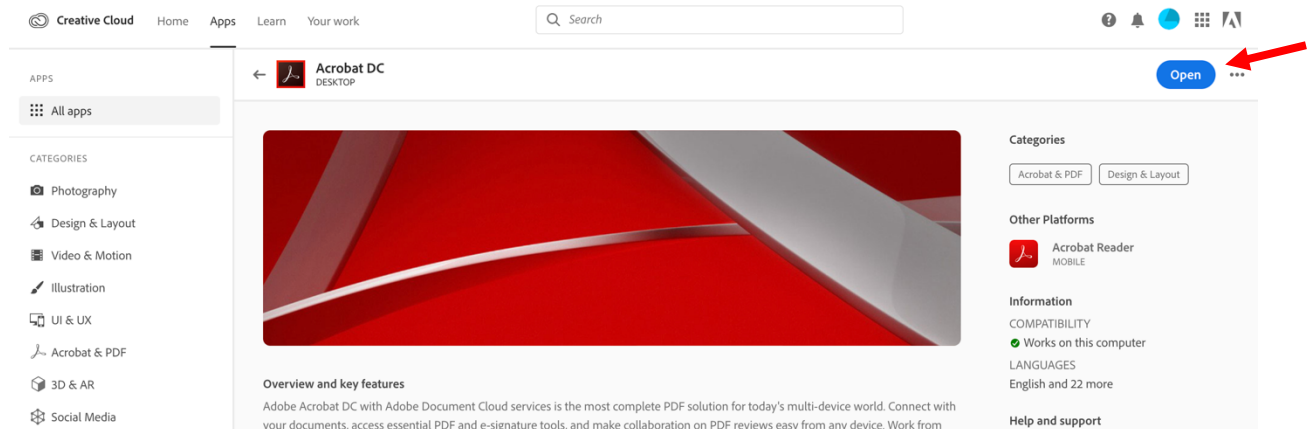

Select 'Acrobat DC' then click 'Get desktop app'
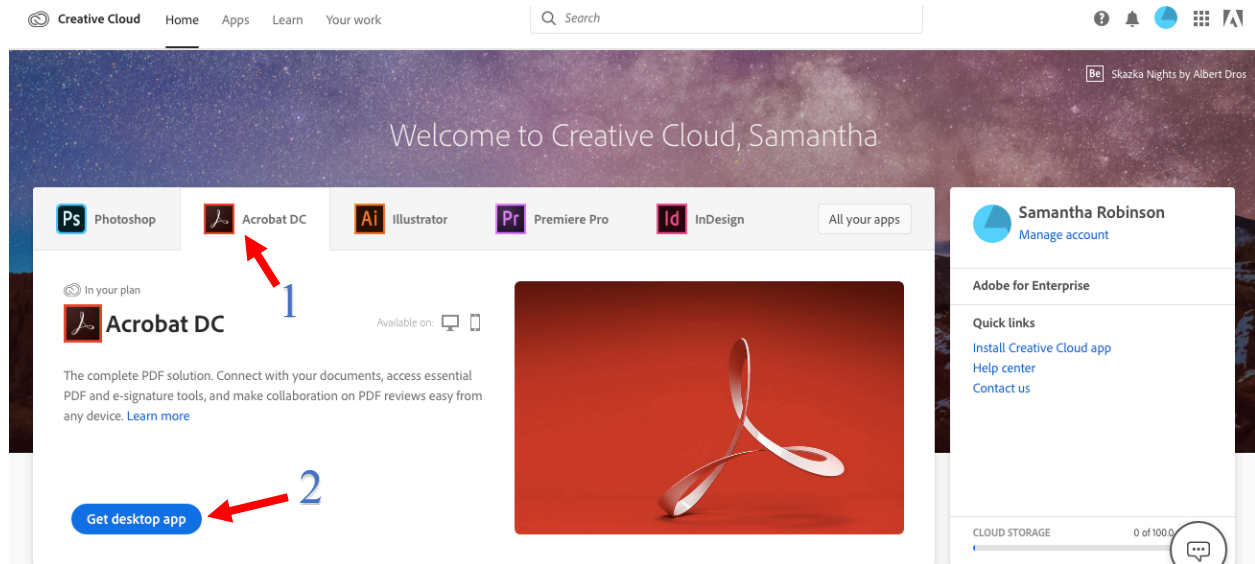

Click 'Install' at the top right of the page, then follow the download instructions

Note: The blue button below that currently says 'Open' originally said 'Download' but I have already installed Acrobat DC

3. Now you have Adobe Pro access! ☺

4. Go to the 'Audio Lecture with PDF' handout. These were just the preliminaries!
